

Membership Services

Prompt business information from IPAF

IPAF Membership has always included free access to its specialist advisory service on all aspects of the powered access industry.

Now it includes use of the broader-based Business Information Service from the Institute of Directors (IoD). This is free to all IPAF members.

The IoD Business Information Centre

The Business Information Service offers IPAF members up to 30 minutes of desk research by qualified and experienced professionals for each enquiry.

Coverage includes:

- Information on corporate governance and boardroom practice
- UK Company accounts data
- Press and journal searches on companies or individuals
- Reports on overseas companies (at cost)
- Market research
- Salary data
- Biographical information
- General business information
- International background information

More details see over or www.ipaf.org

Up-to-date information is one of the most important resources for your business. It allows you to stay in touch with your customers, source the best suppliers and keep abreast of key developments.

Providing you with this information is the role of the Business Information Service - just one of the many ways in which it supports directors in their professional development. Key features of the Business Information Service are:

- Professionally qualified researchers to help establish and refine your information requirements
- Guaranteed response by same time the next working day
- Research time provided free of charge
- Information sourced from major online databases, the Internet and a well stocked Information Centre
- In addition to free information, other intelligence from online sources can be provided at low cost
- Researchers spend up to 30 minutes on each enquiry
- Available 08.30 to 17.30, Monday to Friday (UK time), excluding public holidays
